South Creek, Beaufort Co. No. Ca. 10 June 1889

Mess. S. H. & H. Chapman:

Gentlemen: I am quite anxious to obtain a complete set of U.S. Fractional Currency including varieties.

How many varieties are there all together? I see Scott & Co. give 74.

If any one had all the varieties, would it be necessary for him to have all those whose face & back are printed seperately to have a complete set?

If you will please answer these questions you will greatly oblige me.

Enclosed you will find Stamp for reply.

Very Respectfully, Luther B. Guthrie

Gentlemen:

I enclose you Seventy Five (75¢) in stamps for the 10¢ Split Cy. Bill sent me last week —.

What will you get me a full set of U.S. cents for (from 1793 to 1857)? I only want one of each date and then I can get the varieties if I wish afterwards. I want them in good or very good condition; of course I dont mean such condition for the 1793, 99 & 1804. I dont know as I will get them only I would like to know the price in case I should buy. I enclose Postal for reply.

Very Respectfully

Your letter of 5th, containing [illegible] Cy. received the 8th.

I have looked the Cy. over and find that I have a specimen [illegible] you send. The prices I think are reasonable but I can only [illegible] to obtain a single variety of each.

I have 75 distinct varieties in my [illegible]

I hardly feel able to collect U.S. Cents just now, as I want to [illegible] Good to Fine ones when I do.

As soon as I want the Cents I will let you know and I think we can Trade.

Thanking you for the trouble

you have taken in sending me the

Dear Sir

Your favor of 16th received.

I enclose 5 varieties of the 1000 "Dollar" at 50¢ each — $2.50

I have selected the best specimens I have and one of each variety.

I am selling the $100 1861 [illegible] @ 15¢ each, but as the upper margin is trimmed too close will to you at 50¢ each all around.

I still believe that I have all of the notes that are in the market as to the 1000 & 500 Montgomery notes. I have 4 of each variety, all in extremely fine condition, with the exception of the 1000 notes are cancelled thus #. no part of the [illegible] gone.

I gave 50 a pair for these notes and want $100 a pair for them. If you have a customer for any I will divide profit with you. I am prepared to purchase these notes now at $80 a pair in equally fine condition.

They are without doubt the hardest to obtain of any CSA's and in the most demand.

Respectfully,
Luther B Tuttle

S. H. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen:

Your favor of the 29th. ulto., with Mass. Note, received. Thank you. I dont know as I need any thing special now.

Broken bank notes, finely engraved and those with printed banks are in demand; if you have any thing in these I would like to have prices; I will take any quantity.

When I was at your place, a year ago last May., you showed me some uncirculated U. S. Greenbacks, ones, twos and fives.

This Spring I bought a lot of ones and twos pretty cheap. There is very little demand for them but thought they would not lose anything.

What will you let me have one or two of the fives for, if you wish to close the lot out, I will be pleased to have prices.

Respectfully,

Luther B. Tuthill,
